

Over 24,000 – Dogs expected at Crufts across the four days of the show, from 6-9 March

223 – Different breeds of dogs can compete for the prestigious Best in Show title

200 – Around 200 breeds will be represented in the Discover Dogs area of the show, where visitors can meet and greet their favourite breeds and find out which ones might be a good match for their lifestyle

31 years – The number of years Discover Dogs has been held at Crufts

1891 – The year Crufts began

3,952 – The number of dogs from overseas entered into the show this year

Over 5,000 – The number of people volunteering at Crufts 2025 from ring stewards to breed experts in the Discover Dogs area

100s - Of crossbreeds take part in Crufts, through agility, flyball, obedience, heelwork to music, dog training displays, Scruffts and The Kennel Club Hero Dog Award competitions.

86 – The number of years the Best in Show prize has been awarded.

7 – The number of times a Cocker Spaniel has won Best in Show – more than any other breed. This is followed by the Irish Setter, Standard Poodle and Welsh Terrier which have won on four occasions each

25 – The number of acres of the NEC in Birmingham that Crufts covers. This includes five halls, and the Crufts Best in Show Arena

4 – The number of venues in which Crufts has been held over the years

9 years 7 months – The oldest dog to win Best in Show, which was a Flat Coated Retriever in 2011

1 year 3 months – The youngest dog to win Best in Show, which was a Bulldog in 1952

51 – The total number of countries with dogs entered into Crufts this year

£1.9 million – The amount raised in the Stand Up To Cancer and Crufts walkies challenge since 2023

75 – The number of years since Crufts was first televised

21 – The number of years Clare Balding has presented the TV coverage of Crufts

1 – The number of dogs that have pooped live on TV in the main arena at Crufts during Best in Show!